BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, FORMATION & CHARITY.

JUNE 26, 2022

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus Delivers Us from Evil to Live Our Lives in His Spirit

The reason we encounter a diminishing reverence for God and respect for the sacredness of all life is not because of the apple on the tree but the pair on the ground. God warned Adam and Eve they could eat from all the trees, but not from the tree of good and evil. Once the devil tempted them to refuse to believe in God's will and plan, that is how fear, shame, guilt, violence, and death penetrated our lives. At the same time, our loving Father promised us a Savior and a Woman to redeem us from Original Sin. The Gospels have one desire to lead us to Christ, who is the Way and the Truth to Eternal Life and Love.

Today, Jesus is "resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem." Our Lord chooses to sacrifice himself for us to pay the debt of the Original Sin of Adam and Eve. In our daily lives, Christ's freedom is humble, passionate, and wholly devoted to God. Christ's command to "follow me" is a grace that moves our freedom. Saint Paul reminds us that only by the death of sin and selfishness can we resurrect to live and love like Jesus. For as we know, true love is willing the good of the other.

In his letter to the Galatians, Paul tells us that the fruits of the Holy Spirit are "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control and chastity." God's Powerful Spirit (GPS) can transform us into Missionary Disciples of Jesus if we are willing to pray, fast, and practice the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. Begin to pray to the Holy Spirit to grace and guide you to renew your faith in Jesus by believing God lives and loves through you, despite yourself. Participate at Mass and prepare by receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation. With expectant faith, share your blessingsof His divine love, peace, and joy with those hungering for mercy and compassion. Witnesses make the best teachers. Prayfully consider:
Does your witness to others bear good or evil fruit?

A Prayer to Form Us as Missionary Disciples

Father, You invite each of us to share in the life and ministry of your Son, Jesus. Send your Holy Spirit to form our parish as a community of missionary disciples. Teach us how to hear Jesus, to love Jesus, and to share your gift of salvation with everyone we meet. Through the witness and intercession to Mary, guide us to deepen our commitment as disciples of Jesus. Lead our parish to grow as an intentional community, committed to going and announcing the Gospel of the Lord. We ask for these blessings in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

NEW! KNIGHTS' ESSAY WINNERS
THE VALUE OF MY CATHOLIC EDUCATION

The Knights of Columbus recently asked our Class of 2022 to reflect on their time at SMM School and write an essay regarding the value of their Catholic education. All twenty-six 8th graders, now graduated, participated in the contest, making it challenging for the Knights to select the top essays. The Knights are pleased to announce the essay winner is Lucy DeCandeloro. They also named two runner-ups, Gianna Breault and Meredith Rinaldi. Congratulations! The winning piece is below:

The Value of My Catholic Education

by Lucy DeCandeloro

As my time at St. Mary Magdalen is coming to an end, I have been reflecting on my precious time here. It has made me realize that being able to attend Catholic school was a blessing. It has taught me so many important lessons that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. I have learned the value of hard work, community, but most importantly, what God has called me to do. Because SMM School has emphasized the significance of our duties as Catholics, I know my life will consist of following in the footsteps of Jesus.

"Following in the footsteps of Jesus" is a phrase I have heard many times throughout the course of my ten years at SMM. I can confidently say those words are a lot more complex than they sound. It does not just mean that you should always try to be like Jesus. It means that you need to teach others how to be like Him as well. The more people we can teach to follow Jesus, the kinder and safer our world will be.

My parents initially enrolled me in Catholic school because they attended Catholic school as well. They wanted me to have similar experiences as them and learn the importance of religion. My Mom and Dad also wanted me to receive the sacraments. I had already been baptized, and they wanted me to fulfill my duties as a Catholic. Not only does Catholic school come with an extraordinary education, but it also comes with a wonderful community. Because I have been attending this school for ten years, I think it is safe to say that I have become accustomed to the rigorous education that my school offers. That is why I do not realize how tough the curriculum is until I look at other schools. I was not always grateful for the long nights of homework and working hard on weekends, but now I realize I will be more prepared for high school than ever.

Attending this school has become the foundation for my future and has opened up so many opportunities for me. It has also become the blueprint for the rest of my religious journey. The lessons I have learned here are some of the most important lessons, and I know they will benefit me in the future. My experience at St. Mary Magdalen will stick with me throughout my high school years, my college years, and my adult life as well.

Enjoy Gianna Breault & Meredith Rinaldi's essays in next week's issue!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

In May, through your donations, we were able to assist a family recently involved in a car accident. We paid the $1,000 in repairs, so they had a working car, and we had groceries delivered to them. Additionally, we aided a woman in avoiding a scheduled service shut-off for the next day by settling the $1,100 PECO debt. We can only perform these corporal works of mercy through your generosity and prayers. We thank you for supporting those in need by placing donations in our dropbox near the food bins in the Narthex.

If you know of anyone in need of emergency assistance, please contact Paul at 610-529-1672.

NEW! LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

In the words of Pope Francis, "In the tradition of the Church, there is a wealth of wisdom that has always supported a culture of closeness to the elderly, a disposition of warm and supportive companionship in their final phase of life."

Your gift of caring is expressed through your large donation of needed toiletries. Your generosity and sharing give purpose to our lives and meaningful compassion to the elderly, who may sometimes feel forgotten. Your efforts are cheering and supportive to all of us! Each of us is called by God by His creating us in His image and likeness. We have been called to give our lives to the elderly poor and your gift makes our ministry possible.

Thank you so much! We faithfully remember you in all our prayers and monthly Masses. May His grace, joy, and peace be your gift always throughout this year of HOPE! –In Christ, Sister Veronica

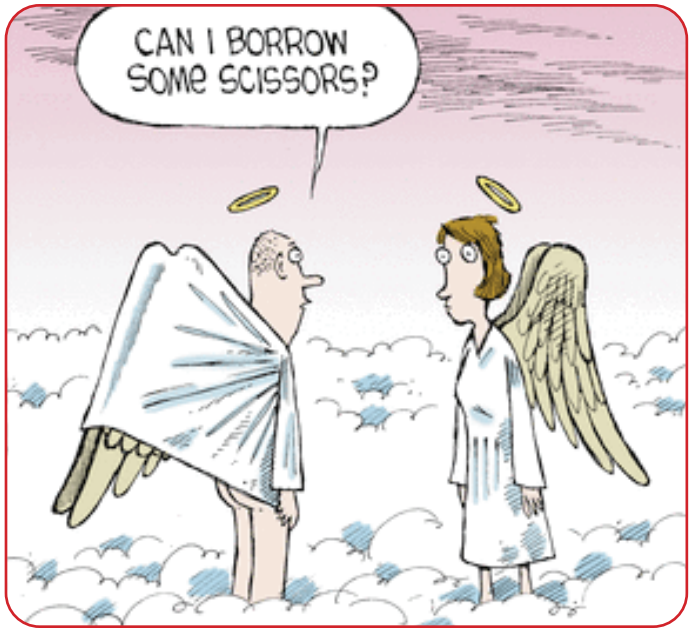
NEW! A LAUGH WITH THE PASTOR



WHAT IS A MISSIONARY DISCIPLE?

True worship and spiritual reflection on the scriptures and teachings of our Catholic faith become rooted when we practice charity, compassion, and mercy. Missionary Disciples display patience and tolerance while also challenging those who are complacent and contradict the commandments of God and the Be-Attitudes of Jesus. Passionate Catholics comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable by sacrificing their time, talents, and treasure to create the world in the image of Jesus.
