

Saint Mary Magdalen Church

Building a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic Worship, Formation & Charity.

18 OCTOBER 2026

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

+JMJ+

Dear Faithful & Friends,

Praised be Jesus Christ! October is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Rosary, a prayer that draws us closer to Jesus through the intercession of His Blessed Mother, Mary. October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary due to the victory won at the Battle of Lepanto. Pope Saint Pius V asked the faithful to pray the Holy Rosary for protection from the invading Ottoman Empire. On October 7, 1571, the alliance of the Papal States, the Republic of Venice, and the Spanish Empire won a decisive victory against the invading Ottoman fleet in the Gulf of Patras.

Since we are halfway through October, I would like to offer some thoughts this week on the depth of this traditional devotion. We know the Holy Rosary is not to be prayed only in October, but the Church exhorts her children this month to appreciate the gift of our Lady's intercession through prayerful meditation on the life of Christ. Thus, whether we already daily recite the Holy Rosary or are just learning, we can all appreciate the goodness of honoring our Lord through this traditional Marian devotion.

We are encouraged to make the Rosary part of our daily lives, praying as individuals and families. Some of us are familiar with the old adage, "the family that prays together, stays together." The Rosary can also be a way in which we ask for grace to be bestowed on someone who currently does not practice the faith. There was once a devout and sweet woman in Philadelphia, originally from Italy, who would hold up her Rosary and say, "This is my lasso; I am going to pull my children back [to the Church] with this lasso."

Many saints have endorsed the Rosary as a powerful prayer. Here are some quotes from the saints on the Holy Rosary:

"Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today." —Padre Pio

"The Rosary is a priceless treasure inspired by God."

—St. Louis de Montfort

"The Rosary is my favorite prayer."

—Pope St. John Paul II

"The Rosary is the most beautiful and the most rich in graces of all prayers." —Pope St. Pius X

"The Rosary is a sweet chain linking us to heaven. [...] It is Our Lady's school, where her children learn the secrets of the Gospel through her eyes and heart."

—St. Bernadette

As we meditate on the mysteries of Christ's life, we learn to imitate His humility, obedience, mercy, and love. The Rosary helps us unite prayer with action. It strengthens us to live justly, forgive generously, and remain faithful to Almighty God even when doing what is right is difficult.

Lastly, there are great promises associated with those who devoutly pray the Rosary. These fifteen promises, traditionally associated with St. Dominic and Blessed Alan de la Roche, encourage perseverance in prayer, growth in virtue, trust in our Lady's intercession, and hope in God's grace. Here are the fifteen promises:

1. Those who faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell. It will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. The recitation of the Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish. It will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God. It will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish.
6. Those who recite my Rosary devoutly, applying themselves to the consideration of its sacred mysteries, shall never be conquered by misfortune. In His justice, God will not chastise them; nor shall they perish by an unprovided death, i.e., be unprepared for heaven. Sinners shall convert. The just shall persevere in grace and become worthy of eternal life.
7. Those who have a true devotion to the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who faithfully recite the Rosary shall have, during their life and at their death, the light of God and the plenitude of His graces. At the moment of death, they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.

9. I shall deliver from purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.

10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.

11. By the recitation of the Rosary you shall obtain all that you ask of me.

12. Those who propagate the holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.

13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of their death.

14. All who recite the Rosary are my beloved children and the brothers and sisters of my only Son, Jesus Christ.

15. Devotion for my Rosary is a great sign of predestination. (see dominicanfriars.org)

As we continue in October, may we pray for each other by offering a daily Rosary. Be assured of my prayers for you in my Rosary. May our Lord bless you and our Lady keep you!

In Christ,
Father Cavara
