

Saint Mary Magdalen Church

Building a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic Worship, Formation & Charity.

16 AUGUST 2026

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

+JMJ+

Dear Faithful & Friends,

Praised be Jesus Christ! There is something deeply mysterious in the Gospel of this Sunday. A Canaanite woman comes to our Lord with a heart broken by the sufferings of her daughter. She has heard of His mercy and power, and with confidence she cries out: "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon" (Mt 15:22).

She comes to Jesus because she believes that He alone can help her. Yet the Gospel gives us a detail that is both striking and difficult, "But he did not say a word in answer to her" (Mt 15:23). Our Lord is silent.

The woman has asked for mercy, and there is no immediate response. The disciples even become impatient with her, but she does not turn away. She remains before Christ and continues to plead, "Lord, help me" (Mt 15:25).

What a lesson this is for us. There are times when we kneel before the Blessed Sacrament and seem to hear nothing. We pray for the conversion of a loved one, for healing, for deliverance from some trial, or for the grace to persevere, and still the difficulty remains. We may wonder whether our Lord has heard us.

However, this Gospel reminds us that the silence of Christ is not the absence of Christ. Our Lord sometimes permits us to persevere in prayer because He desires to deepen our faith. He teaches us to seek not merely His gifts, but Himself. The Canaanite woman did not demand an explanation for Christ's silence. She humbled herself, trusted Him, and remained before Him.

This is the spirit of true Catholic prayer. We come before our Lord especially in the Holy Eucharist, where He is truly, really, and substantially present. Even when we experience no consolation, even when prayer seems dry, even when heaven seems silent, we know by faith that Jesus is there.

We need not feel His presence in order to believe in His presence. The Canaanite woman teaches us to remain with Christ when we do not understand His ways. Her perseverance was rewarded, and our Lord finally said, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish" (Mt 15:28).

The woman could have walked away. She could have concluded that Jesus did not care. Instead, she remained. She prayed again. This is the prayer of a humble soul. For even when our Lord seems silent, He has not ceased to listen. And the soul that humbly perseveres in faith will one day understand that no prayer offered in trust was ever wasted.

The Canaanite woman teaches us to persevere and humbly remain before Christ. We are given many helps for this perseverance: Holy Mass, Confession, Eucharistic Adoration, Sacred Scripture, the Rosary, and the quiet daily prayer of a Christian soul. We do not abandon these practices because we feel no consolation. Faith does not depend upon feelings.

When we kneel before the Blessed Sacrament, we know that our Lord is truly present, whether our hearts are filled with consolation or with dryness. When we receive Holy Communion worthily, we receive the same Jesus whom the Canaanite woman sought with such confidence.

May we also look to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Our Lady knew divine silence. She did not understand every mystery placed before her, but she believed. At Bethlehem, in Egypt, at Nazareth, and especially beneath the Cross, she remained faithful. We celebrated the Assumption of our Lady this weekend, which reminds us to imitate her fidelity and trust with the hope of heaven.

May our Lady obtain for us the grace to remain standing at the foot of the Cross when we do not understand; to remain kneeling before the Blessed Sacrament when our Lord seems silent; and to remain faithful in prayer when the answer is delayed.

Finally, when we do not know what else to say, let us borrow the words of the Canaanite woman: "Lord, help me." For Christ is never indifferent to the prayer of a humble and persevering soul.

Have a blessed week.

May our Lord bless you and our Lady keep you!

Yours in Christ,
Father Cavara

NEW! CATECHISM Q&As

What does Jesus Promise to those who love him?

He promises eternal happiness to those who love him. "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly." (John 10:10)

Does Jesus promise us happiness in this life?

Jesus promises us happiness in this life. When he became human, he revealed himself as the image of the invisible God; he also restored to humanity that which had been lost by sin, the full beauty and majesty of our dignity as creatures made in God's image. True happiness is the result when we live up to the dignity of the human person.

In what words does Christ tell us how to attain happiness in this life? In the Sermon on the Mount, which contains the Beatitudes. Jesus said:

*Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and
thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean in heart,
for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted
for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.*

The word 'blessed' means 'happy', and the Beatitudes are at the very core of Christ's teachings. They fulfill the promise made to the Jewish people by pointing beyond earthly happiness to the eternal happiness in heaven. In fact, the reward promised in each of the Beatitudes is primarily heaven. They reveal the goal of human existence, the ultimate purpose of human acts; God calls us to his own beatitude—This vocation is addressed to each one of us, as well as the Church as a whole—the new people made up of those who have accepted the promise to live from it in faith (CCC 1719). If we live according to this plan, we shall have a foretaste of the happiness of heaven in this life. Christ tells us that we will be happy by doing for his sake the very things which we may think will make us unhappy. What things come to mind when we ponder this in our hearts?
