BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, FORMATION & CHARITY.

JANUARY 8, 2023

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Our Faith in Jesus Reveals Our True Identity

Winners of the Knights' Christmas Essay and Poster Contests.

Pope Benedict XVI taught us that faith in the divine person of Jesus reveals our true identity. We are created in the image of the Trinitarian love of the Father for the Son in the power of the Holy Spirit. From His divine will and pleasure, God blesses us with intellect and free will so we can love Him and one another with our minds and hearts. Like Benedict, the more we understand and imitate the heart and mind of Jesus through worship, education, and charity, the more we discover His presence, power, and peace in our daily lives. If we want to build and enjoy a culture of life, we must pray for the courage of the wise men and women, our saints who embraced the Word of God that took flesh and blood in Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus is the Way and the Truth to Live and Love on our journey back to God, and the Bible is His love letter to form us as Missionary Disciples for Jesus.

The Feast of the Epiphany challenges us to ponder the mystery of Jesus and embrace His divine mercy. These scholarly men understood that knowledge without faith in a higher life-creating deity leads to materialism and death. By discovering Jesus and offering their gifts, they acknowledged that Jesus is the true Priest, Prophet, and King of the universe. Gold was the sign of kingship, frankincense revealed Christ as the priest, and myrrh signaled that Jesus would teach us the secret to eternal life through the mystery of His passion, death, and resurrection. How wise are we to recognize what Pope Benedict stated: "Faith without reason leads to fanaticism, and reason without faith leads to materialism."

Like the Magi, we can only discover our gifts when we share them generously with those we love and serve. Saint Paul changed from persecuting Christians to becoming the greatest evangelist by believing in the challenge of Jesus: "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me." Paul realized that we are all God's precious children. Jesus is the "Light of the world" who alone can transform the darkness of sin and despair into the light of hope and healing with his divine mercy. Jesus commands us to "Let your light shine before all so that they may see the good you do and give glory to God."

Witnesses make the best teachers. Do not allow the culture of death to distract you from building a culture of faith in God, the Church, and family life. By offering our time, talents, and treasure for our best forever and faithful friend Jesus, who promises you a family of faith and cheerful and compassionate companions of Jesus, who build a culture of life and love.

NEW! CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK
WE CELEBRATE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS
JANUARY 29 TO FEBRUARY 4

St. Mary Magdalen will celebrate National Catholic Schools Week with an array of activities to recognize the achievements of our faculty, staff, students, and supporters. The celebrations begin on Sunday, January 29, at the 9:30 AM Mass, followed by an Open House at 10:30 AM, which includes refreshments provided by the H&S Association, a Science Fair, Art Show, and a striking Showcase featuring the Middle School. Each day highlights a unique celebratory component of our dynamic Catholic Schools, including our parish, nation, students, faculty, community, and vocations. Events comprise an Assembly, Religion Bee, Military Display, Spelling Bee, Bringing Hope Home Prayer Partner Project, and an SMM family night on Thursday, February 2, at 'Flight on Ice' skating in Edgmont. We welcome all parishioners, families, and interested parents to the CSW Mass and School's Open House on January 29. For information on Catholic Schools Week, visit NCEA.org/CSW or stmarymagdalenschool.net for details.

We are Called to Be Missionary Disciples

NEW! VOLUNTEER FOR CLOW MINISTRY

We need catechist volunteers to teach the Gospel to children in grades 1 to 3 during the 9:30 AM Sunday Mass during the school year. CLOW (Children's Liturgy of the Word) invites children to the Chapel during the 9:30 Mass for the reading and a brief lesson related it. A special CLOW Gospel book is used and children are invited to share their prayer intentions. Please consider adding your joy and voice to this rewarding ministry for our children.
For more, please contact Carol at CLOW@stmarymagdalen.net.

What does the Epiphany commemorate?

On the great feast of the Epiphany, we celebrate the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles (all those who are not Jewish) with the story of the Magi, who represent the discerning men, astrologers, or kings, who came from the East to pay homage to the Christ Child. The liturgy prompts us to give thanks for the blessings of the faith and to seek a deeper faith through prayer and meditation.

GREETERS NEEDED

Become a part of our Hospitality Ministry Team. Offer your bright smile and welcome others to our church before weekend Masses or special events as a greeter. We need a few parishioners, particularly for the 11:30 AM and 5:30 PM Masses. It is a minimal time commitment that makes a significant impact. Please help us extend a welcoming spirit to all who enter our community.

For more information, contact Ginny McHugh at 610.361.5141 or jmchugh123@verizon.net.

Together, as a Parish Family, We:

Remember Emeritus Pope Benedict

The Emeritus Pope Benedict XVI, when back to God on December 31, 2022, at the age of 95, at the Mater Ecclesiae convent in the Vatican, where he had resided and spent the last years of his life in retreat and prayer. Pope Benedict was laid to rest on Thursday, January 5. His Holiness Pope Francis celebrated the Solemn Funeral Mass for Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.

A Prayer for Pope Benedict XVI

Almighty ever-living God, who made Pope Benedict XVI a wise teacher of your people, a gentle shepherd of your flock, and a faithful pastor of your Church, grant in your kindness that your humble servant, who in this life believed in you and loved you, may now receive your mercy and rejoice in your presence forever in the glory of the Saints. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Benedict was born Joseph Alois Ratzinger on April 16, 1927, in Marktl am Inn in Bavaria, Germany, near the Austrian border. Before he was elected pope, Benedict led a distinguished career as a theologian and prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. His father was a policeman, and his mother was a hotel cook. Joseph was the youngest of three children, only six years old, when the Nazis took power in Germany in 1933. His parents, who were staunch Catholics, were hostile to the regime. He entered the seminary in 1939, but in 1943 he was drafted into the German military. In April of 1945, he deserted and was captured by American forces and was held for a brief period.

After the war, the future pope continued his vocation and was ordained a priest in June of 1951. He was awarded a doctorate in theology at the University of Munich in 1953. He wrote critical theological works during his lengthy academic career, including Introduction to Christianity (1968) and Dogma and Revelation (1973). His work in theology drew the attention of the Archbishop Joseph Frings, who asked him to serve as his expert assistant at the Second Vatican Council (1962–65). On November 25, 1981, he was made prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith by Pope John Paul II, whom he had known well since 1977.

His friend, Pope John Paul II shared a similar history, having lived under a totalitarian regime, and their views on the Church were substantially the same. For over two decades, Joseph Ratzinger was the Pope John Paul II's closest adviser.

After the death of Pope John Paul II, he prayed not to be chosen. Still, he was elected on the second day, and John Ratzinger humbly accepted his election on April 19, 2005, becoming at age 78 the oldest newly elected pope since Clement XII (1730–40). During the early years of his papacy, Pope Benedict visited several countries, including Turkey, where he met the ecumenical patriarch of Constantinople in the hope of improving relations between the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches. In 2008 Benedict made his first visit as pope to the United States, where he spoke out against clerical sexual abuse and delivered an address at the United Nations.

Pope Benedict XVI was recognized for his deep intellect, humility, gentleness, and many gifts—he spoke several languages and was an accomplished pianist with a particular fondness for Mozart.

Hours after his death, Pope Francis praised his predecessor and expressed gratitude for his life of faith and prayers, especially those offered in the nearly ten years since he became the first pontiff in centuries to retire from the papacy. Pope Francis said, "We feel so much gratitude in the heart. Gratitude to God for having given him to the Church and the world," the pope continued, "Gratitude to him, for all the good he did, and above all for his witness of faith and prayer, especially in these last years of withdrawn life. Only God knows the value and the strength of his intercession, of his sacrifices offered for the good of the Church."

PERPETUAL ADORATION HOURS

We continue searching for meaningful ways to be closer to Jesus, perhaps you have been feeling overwhelmed or grateful. Jesus is here for you in each of your sorrows and joys. Consider spending one-on-one time with Him in any of these Holy Hour openings in Perpetual Adoration. It is a beautiful way to share, reflect, thank, adore, and praise our Eucharistic Lord. We are grateful for all our adorers because there would be no Perpetual Adoration without them. Maybe, grab a partner in prayer and share a slot. We have current open hours: Monday from 1 to 2 PM, 2 to 3 PM, and 9 to 10 PM; Tuesday from 10 to 11 AM, 11 AM to Noon, 1 to 2 PM, and 10 to 11 PM; Thursday from 10 to 11 AM, 11 AM to Noon, 1 to 2 PM, and 5 to 6 PM. Contact Shelly Zeller at 610.505.0559 for more information.

Faith without charity bears no fruit...Faith and charity each require the other, in such a way that each allows the other to set out along its respective path.

– Pope Benedict XVI

NEW! COACHES VS. CANCER JANUARY 20 TO JANUARY 22

Our favorite basketball weekend, Coaches vs. Cancer, returns to SMM in the Fr. John Hughes Center (gym) from January 20 to January 22. We are super excited to continue our efforts to CRUSH cancer. Come to cheer and support the coaches and their basketball teams on Friday night, Saturday, and Sunday! For more information, email Kelly at doylekelly@comcast.net with questions.

NEW! THE CULTURE PROJECT COMES TO SMM THIS MONTH

The Culture Project is a team of young people from across the country who help students discover the truth about who they are, their purpose, and the state of our culture. We know many youths feel disjointed in today's culture, which hands them phony versions of love and freedom. Our culture promises to satisfy their deepest desires, leaving them anxious, overwhelmed, and unfulfilled. Their dynamic presentations talk about the inherent dignity of humanity, the benefits of sexual integrity, and healthy social media use.

The Culture Project has spoken to teens in over a thousand schools and churches about dignity, self-worth, and how living a righteous life is healthy and awesome. Culture Project missionaries also walk with students throughout the year by offering Q&A discussions, lunches, and after-school visits with other young people striving for a more virtuous life. SMM is delighted to offer this program to our families. We will hold a meeting open to all parents of 7th and 8th graders on Monday, January 9, at 6:30 PM in the gym to learn more about the Culture Project and its engaging and powerful message to youth. All are encouraged and welcome to attend. Beginning this month, the Culture Project will present its first sessions to 7th and 8th-grade students in PREP and the school. For more information, visit thecultureproject.org.

We can believe in God because He comes close to us and touches us, because the Holy Spirit, a gift of the Risen One, enables us to receive the living God. Thus faith is first of all a supernatural gift, a gift of God."

– Pope Benedict XVI
