

Saint Mary Magdalen Parish

BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, FORMATION & CHARITY.

NOVEMBER 13, 2022

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Church Needs Intentional Disciples of Jesus

Recently, Archbishop Pérez challenged us during a priest workshop to become "Intentional Missionary Disciples" of Jesus. He shared that as Catholics, most of us do a lot of praying and works of charity, but we often do not see ourselves as "Intentional Christians" who make the presence, power, and peace of Risen Lord in our daily lives.

The prophet Malachi warns that God will judge us as to whether we live and trust in the purifying fire of the Holy Spirit or the demonic spirit. Saint Paul converted those who lived disorderly lives and encouraged everyone to practice compassion and mercy. The psalmist sings, "The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice."

The third-century bishop, Cyprian said: "When persecution comes, God's soldiers are put to the test, and heaven is open to martyrs. We have not enlisted in an army to think of peace and to decline battle, for we see that the Lord has taken first place in the conflict." God's martyrs live and die as witnesses of the Gospel. They overcome their enemies by persevering in hope and courage, undying love, forbearance, kindness, goodness, and compassion. God may call some to be martyrs who shed their blood to bear witness to Jesus Christ. However, for most of us, our call is to be 'dry' martyrs who bear testimony of the joy and power of the Gospel amid the daily challenges, contradictions, temptations, and adversities which come our way as we follow the Lord Jesus.

What attracts others to the truth and power of the Gospel? When they witness Christians who love their enemies, are joyful in suffering, patient in adversity, pardoning injuries, and show comfort and compassion to the hopeless and the helpless. Jesus tells us that we do not need to fear our adversaries. God will bless us with sufficient grace, strength, and wisdom to face any trials and answer any challenges to our faith. Are you ready to lay down your life for Christ and to bear witness to the joy and freedom of the Gospel?

Seminarian Paul Boyer and many parishioners inspire me with their joyful hope, courage, and boldness in witnessing the truth of Christ's love for sinners and victory over the powers of sin, satan, and death. Pray for God's Powerful Spirit (GPS) and Saint Mary Magdalen to help us evolve as Intentional Missionary Disciples of Jesus. Proclaim the good news that "Christ has died! Christ is Risen! Christ will come again!

ALL ARE WELCOME! ✦ 2400 N. PROVIDENCE ROAD ✦ MEDIA, PENNSYLVANIA 19063

TODAY! ST. CHARLES BORROMEO
ANNUAL SEMINARY APPEAL
MASSES ON NOVEMBER 12 & 13

We welcome seminarian Paul Boyer, IV College, who will speak to us at all the Masses this weekend. He will talk about his formation and the vital work of St. Charles Seminary. Please look for their seminary appeal envelopes available in the Narthex, or visit stcharlesseminaryappeal.org to donate.

MEET SEMINARIAN PAUL BOYER

After graduating from Archbishop John Carroll High School in 2018, Paul entered the seminary in August and is currently in his fifth year of study to be a priest for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

He will earn an undergraduate degree in Philosophy and seek a master's degree in Theology.

Paul's family resides in Havertown, where he attended St. Denis with his brother. Paul expressed, "I am excited to be at Saint Mary Magdalen this year for the Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary Appeal. I am grateful to Msgr. Chieffo, the parish staff, and all of you for the warm welcome. Your contributions to the seminary are greatly appreciated, and even more so, I thank you for your prayers. Please pray for me and know of my prayers for you!"

Did you know that over the last fifty years,
the number of priests in the United States has decreased by 60 percent?

It's true, according to data from the Georgetown Center of Applied Research in the Apostolate, which leaves more than 3,500 churches without a resident pastor.

NEW! A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

He said to them, "Come and See."

God of all nations, we are most grateful for the first Catholic missionaries and explorers.

As strangers in a strange land, they brought countless skills, talents, and traditions, yet their greatest treasure was their faith. May the Good News of Jesus Christ, which set and shaped their lives, continue to set and shape our today.

Bless our diocese with men and women who will follow in their footsteps to serve the Church as religious brothers, sisters, priests, and deacons.

Lord Jesus Christ, help to hear your call to "Come and See." Amen.

The Eucharistic Revival

'Behold, I make all things new.'

You need not look very far to know our world is hurting. We need healing, yet many of us separate ourselves from the source of our strength—Jesus Christ. He invites us to return to our faith's "source and summit" in His presence in the Eucharist. On Corpus Christi, we began a movement to restore our understanding and devotion to this great mystery and gift from God. Our world is full of division, doubt, and scandal, and the Church has withstood each of these throughout human history. Today, we confront them all at once. Our response at this moment is pivotal. This revival isn't only about our faith in the Eucharist but also about how God heals us and revives our fragmented world.

"If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion."

St. Maximilian Kolbe

There is so much that is hurt outside and within the Church. Receiving the Eucharist is meant to introduce a principle of radical change within each one of us, giving each of us the capacity, because of our communion with Jesus, for unmeasured self-giving love. A love that heals and renews not only us but our culture, too.

Pope Benedict XVI once compared the effects of the transubstantiation of bread and wine to nuclear fission. Of course, merely adoring or receiving the Blessed Sacrament doesn't automatically create this kind of change within. Each of us must intentionally allow this encounter to influence us. Only then does building a civilization of love become a meaningful possibility. Mother Teresa depended upon Eucharistic Communion, and the global effects of her "yes" to God continue to reverberate to this day. The world needs an army of missionary disciples who know Jesus intimately and how to live in profound union with him. Then, great things are possible. It takes time to kindle a loving relationship, and your relationship with Jesus Christ is no exception. This journey to Christ in the Eucharist will unfold with discernment, encounter, and our response on the diocesan, parish, and individual levels. St. Mary Magdalen wants to accompany you as we cultivate a revitalized spirit at our parish and create a deeper communion with Jesus.

BE A CATECHIST!

Catechists come from all walks of life!

They do not have to be expert teachers or brilliant theologians. Catechists are ordinary people, just like you and me, who generously volunteer their time to share our Catholic faith, values, and traditions with our youngest generation of Christians and to walk beside and bear witness to them. Their gift through their words, actions, and expression of love for their students is the message of Jesus Christ. Guidance is available!

To learn more, contact Deacon Joseph at prep@stmarymagdalen.net.

VOLUNTEER FOR CLOW MINISTRY

We need more volunteers to teach the Gospel to children in grades 1 to 3 during the 9:30 AM Sunday Mass during the school year. CLOW (Children's Liturgy of the Word) invites children to the Chapel during the 9:30 Mass for the reading and a brief lesson related to it. A special CLOW Gospel book is used and children are invited to share their prayer intentions. Please consider adding your voice to this rewarding ministry for our children. For more, please contact Carol at CLOW@stmarymagdalen.net.

GREETERS NEEDED

Become a part of our Hospitality Ministry Team.

We need a few parishioners, particularly for the 11:30 AM and 5:30 PM Masses. It is a minimal time commitment that makes a significant impact.
