BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, FORMATION & CHARITY.

JANUARY 29, 2023

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Beatitudes Reveal God's Mind and Heart to Respect All

PREP students spend time with Jesus in Adoration.

Passionate Catholics believe our heavenly Father created us to know, love, and serve Him with reverence. As Catholics, we must respect each other as His precious children by sacrificing our lives to protect and defend human life. Our Parish Mission unites our minds and hearts to "Build a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic Worship, Formation, and Charity." Do you believe human life begins at conception and continues to eternal life? Our state representative sent a survey asking us to vote on whether we "should protect a women's right to abortion?"

As Catholic citizens, we must remind our legislatures that our Constitution protects the "inalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness of everyone." If we choose to kill an innocent unborn child in the womb, what is wrong with murdering anyone else? Saint Mother Teresa and Saint John Paul II warned us that as long as the United States permits abortion, our nation would fall from within. Without God's power and plan, the demonic spirits of confusion, fear, and anxiety will promote divorce, gender confusion, suicide, mercy killing, and violence.

Jesus offers the "BE-Attitudes" of our merciful and compassionate Father, who reveals how we can promote life, trust, and peace in the hearts of all we love and serve. We all long for true happiness. Jesus' eight Beatitudes invites us to be holy and discover our true vocation to become a saint. The word beatitude means "happiness" or "blessedness." God gives us everything that fulfills the natural desire for happiness that God has placed in every heart. They teach us that our hearts are restless until they rest in His divine heart. What a joy to see those families who practice their faith, participate in our adult scripture reflection groups and offer their time and talents to strengthen the faith of their family and friends radiate a joyful spirit.

All the saints encourage us to pray, fast, and live the BE-Attitudes. Our witness and practice of the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy will touch many lost souls who live in fear, anxiety, and confusion. As we celebrate Catholic School Week, meditate and decide how you can become more Passionately Catholic and Academically Excellent in teaching reverence, respect, and responsibility for the sacredness of life and the sanctity of marriage. "Rejoice and be glad; your reward will be great in heaven. Alleluia! Alleluia!"

TODAY! CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK MASS & OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY, JANUARY 29

St. Mary Magdalen will celebrate National Catholic Schools Week with an array of activities to recognize the achievements of our faculty, staff, students, and supporters. The celebrations begin on Sunday, January 29, at the 9:30 AM Mass, followed by an Open House from 10:30 to noon, which includes refreshments provided by the H&S Association, a Science Fair, Art Show, and a striking showcase featuring the Middle School. Each day highlights a unique celebratory component of our dynamic Catholic School including our parish, nation, students, faculty, community, and vocations. Events comprise an Assembly, Religion Bee, Military Display, Spelling Bee, Bringing Hope Home Prayer Partner Project, and an SMM family night on Thursday, February 2, at 'Flight on Ice' skating in Edgmont. We welcome all parishioners, families, and interested parents to the CSW Mass and School's Open House on January 29. For information on Catholic Schools Week, visit NCEA.org/CSW or stmarymagdalenschool.net for details.

UPDATE! SCHOOL'S CLASS OF 2023 SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENTS

We have heard from the following 8th students who, so far, received $313,000 in scholarships to area high schools this fall. We congratulate these outstanding students for their achievements, including Ryan Hefferan: Legacy Scholarship for Archbishop John Carroll; Jack Longo: Principal's Grant for St. Joseph's Preparatory; Grace Nasr: STEM Scholarship of Promise and a Merit Scholarship for Academy of Notre Dame de Namur, Presidential Scholarship for Cardinal O'Hara; Lauren Savko: St. Madeliene Sophie Merit Scholarship for Sacred Heart Academy, Merit Scholarship for Cardinal O'Hara; Ema Reiner: Randy Rogers Memorial Scholarship for Sacred Heart Academy; Andrew Schuenemann: Merit Scholarship for Cardinal O'Hara, Merit Scholarship for Salesianum Preparatory, Principal's Grant for St. Joseph's Preparatory, Pious Scholarship for Devon Preparatory School; Isabella Tillilie: Merit Scholarship and an Excellence in Mathematics Scholarship for Cardinal O'Hara, William Wood: Boy Scouts of America Scholarship for Archbishop John Carroll.

NEW! THAT MAN IS YOU THURSDAYS • 6:30 AM

That Man Is You (TMIY) returns on Thursdays, with a new season, which began on January 26. A Catholic scripture-based program for men which addresses the challenges men face in today's culture.

As we prepare for Lent, consider joining other men of all ages for our 'Light of Men' series with a particular focus on preparing our hearts for His Rising this Easter. It's a great support network to help us stay accountable to our Lenten goals of prayer, fasting, and sacrifice.

No advanced preparation is needed, and weekly attendance is not required—so you can join us anytime. Come on Thursday to the St. Francis Room. The doors open at 6 AM, and we begin at 6:30 AM—be out the door by 7:30 AM. All are welcome!

PRAY FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS WITH BLESSED CHALICE AT HOME

Since our parish began in 1963, only Father Gary Pacitti was ordained from our parish in 1989 and currently serves as pastor of Saint Basil the Great. Please pray for vocations to the priesthood. To aid us in these prayers, we have a blessed traveling Chalice from the Holy Land to enthrone in your home for a week. To host the Chalice, contact Deacon Joseph at deaconjoe@stmarymagdalen.net.

The Murdolo family recently hosted our traveling Chalice and prayed for priestly vocations (See above).

NEW! THE KNIGHTS ANNOUNCE WINNERS ANNUAL FREE THROW CONTEST

Last Saturday, the SMM Knights headed another successful Free Throw Competition. The Knights are delighted to announce the event winners as follows: Nicholas McCarthy (Age 9); Charlotte Schuler, Colin Lake (Age 10); Vienna Lubic, Brady Sirkin (Age 11); Avery Longo, Joey Thompson (Age 12); Grace Nasr, Jack Longo (Age 13); and Kathleen Rayfield, Ryan Hefferan (Age 14). These competitors are eligible to advance to the District Competition at St. Kevin's Parish Center on Saturday, February 11 at 11 AM. The Knights are grateful to the children, their parents, and our CYO for participating in the event. Congratulations!

The Winners of the Knights' Annual Free Throw Contest last Saturday.

Do This in Remembrance of Me

The Mass—Part One

Why is the Mass so essential to Catholics? Why do we stand, sit, and kneel at specific times during the Mass? Where did the prayers we say at Mass originate? How could I pray more deeply at Mass?

These are just some of the questions our parishioners ponder, and they are great questions! So, over the coming months, we will explore the most common things Catholics want to know about the Mass. In this multiple-part series, we will review the parts of the Mass from the moment we enter through the church doors exploring all its complete fullness.

What is the Mass?

We will delve into this question as we walk through the Mass. Today, let's ponder some ways to think about Mass. First, the Mass is our participation in the one perfect Sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross. Our participation in true communion with God and each other, His Body. Mass is a small 'taste' in this life on earth, of the complete perfection we will experience in God's Kingdom of heaven. The Mass is the ideal worship to our Father, it is an invaluable source of gifts and blessings for us.

Holy Water

What is one of the first things we usually do when we enter a Catholic church?

Many of us dip a finger in the holy water font and make the Sign of the Cross. We make this gesture so often that sometimes we do not think about its meaning. Why are holy water fonts located near the entrance of the church? These fonts are a symbol that recalls the baptismal washing of the faithful (Ceremonies for the Modern Rite, no. 44).

In many traditional layouts, the baptistry was located close to the main door of the church. So, just as the Sacrament of Baptism is our entrance into the life of God and the Christian Faith, it is meaningful and symbolic that fonts are at the doorway of churches. They recall our entry into the life of the Church when we were baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, (the Sign of the Cross).

So as you enter a church, you bless yourself with holy water and remember the sacrament through which you entered into God's family.

When we enter our church for Mass, we are, coming to a place of "family celebration." We have been given tremendous gifts as members of God's family, and holy water reminds us of these gifts. By blessing ourselves with holy water, we recommit ourselves to living sacred lives in fidelity to Christ and prepare to participate fruitfully in the Holy Mass.

Sacramentals

Holy water is blessed by a bishop, priest, or deacon and is among the holy things the church calls "sacramentals." The Catechism of the Catholic Church says they "are sacred signs which bear a resemblance to the sacraments" (CCC, 1667), meaning they help us recall the graces of the sacraments.

They don't confer grace but prepare us to receive grace and help us be ready to cooperate with those graces so we can grow in faith and holiness.

Dipping our fingers into the holy water and making the Sign of the Cross as we enter the church is not the same as our Baptism, when water was poured upon us and baptized in the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. However, intentionally blessing ourselves with holy water as we enter the church recalls that day we came into God's family, reminding us we are beloved children of the Father.

As we prepare to join with Christ in His perfect offering to the Father, this first gesture as we enter church helps us to know that we belong and invites us to participate in the Sacrifice of Christ.

Reflection

Next time you make the Sign of the Cross, consider how Christ fulfills His promise to remain with us, and ask for greater awareness of God's presence in your life.

When were you baptized? Reflect on this gift of initiation into God's family, and look forward to your next visit to church. Please know we look forward to being with you in our spiritual home!

TOGETHER, AS A PARISH FAMILY, WE:

Renew. Revive. Rejoice.
