EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Book of Genesis tells us that God rested on the seventh day from the work of Creation. But what about the eighth day? While everything created was very good, and after the Divine Sabbath, what happens next?

Scripture tells us that the human drama—meant to be a story of growing more and more like unto God—gets caught up in the sin and ingratitude of the first human beings, who reject God’s good commandments, which are meant to make them like himself. Instead, they freely submit to the lies of the tempter: they choose to become like God on their own terms and with their own efforts, rather than by trusting in God’s divine plan. This free choice, of course, is a disaster for the human beings, and the history of the human race after that is like that of a nation in exile.

But in Christ, God has reconciled humanity to himself. By the death of Christ on the Cross—on the sixth day of that week—God has refashioned humanity, just as he had originally made it on the sixth day of Creation. Then on the seventh day, in a moving re-telling of the Creation story, God rested. That is, Jesus, who is God, the Second Person of the Trinity, rested in the tomb in the silence and sleep of death. Yet, even then, Christ was at work, preaching the Gospel of salvation to those in Sheol, those who had died from Adam to that moment, who were caught up in that exile of sin.

Now, no longer: the reign of sin has come to an end because Christ has conquered death and is risen to life again. Finally, then, on the Day of Resurrection, the Genesis story picks up again: on the eighth day, the new creation begins in Christ the Risen Savior. Isn’t it interesting that Mary Magdalen first thinks that Jesus is the gardener? In a real way, he is. But not the gardener of this area outside the empty tomb, but the gardener of our souls, the one who walked about the Garden of Eden in the beginning and who now calls us to share in a new and better Eden. What God had meant for the man and the woman from the beginning—deification, becoming like God himself—is now possible again in Christ. Through Baptism, we really do die with Christ, are buried with, and rise again to new life, never to die again (in this, we distinguish between biological death, which does not disappear but is transformed in Christ, and the death of sin, which is real death). The Risen Savior goes before us. Therefore, having been renewed in the graces of our own Baptism, may we walk in newness of life this joyful Easter day.

In particular, we walk with four new members of God's family, the Church, who, in the Holy Night of Easter, received their Baptism and, for the first time, shared with us at the Eucharistic banquet of the Risen Savior. They are: Lisa Colterelli, Sebastian Fitzgerald, Jessica Pelesh, and Serena Hart.

I thank Deacon Bob and Patty Szipszky, the sponsors of the newly baptized, and all who have inspired them and helped them come to this moment in their lives.

May the Lord grant you peace!

—Father Eric Banecker

PRAY FOR US SERVICE MEMBERS

As we pray for peace in the Middle East and around the world, for an end to strife, let us pray for our veterans, all those currently serving in our military, their families, and especially those in our SMM family:

Timothy Brown, 1st Lieutenant USMC, C-130 Pilot, stationed at Iwakuni, Japan.

Mick Horrocks, Lieutenant, US Navy.

Thomas Kerr, Petty Officer 2nd Class, stationed in Rota, Spain, deployed on USS Bulkeley.

Brian Szipszky, US Navy Ensign, stationed in Norfolk, VA, serving on the USS Ross.

Jack Szipsky, US Air Force Captain, 21st Special Operations Squadron. He is a CV-22 Osprey pilot based in Yokota Air Base in Tokyo, Japan.

Mikayla Szipsky, US Space Force Captain, (wife of Jack), based in Yokota Air Base in Tokyo.

Eli Volk, Lieutenant, US Navy.

If you have a loved one or friend currently serving, or a veteran in need of prayers, please let us know by emailing John at jgill@stmarymagdalen.net.

POPE LEO'S PRAYER FOR THE JUBILEE YEAR OF ST. FRANCIS

Saint Francis, our brother, you who eight hundred years ago went to meet Sister Death as a man at peace, intercede for us with the Lord. In the Crucifix of San Damiano, you recognized true peace. Teach us to see in Him the source of all reconciliation that breaks down every wall. You, who, unarmed, crossed the lines of war and misunderstanding, give us the courage to build bridges where the world erects borders. In this time, plagued by conflict and division, intercede so that we may become peacemakers: unarmed and disarming witnesses of the peace that comes from Christ. Amen.
