Building a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic Worship, Formation & Charity.

5 JULY 2026

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONSECRATION OF THE USA
TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

In honor of the 250th Anniversary of the United States of America, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops consecrated our nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus:

You know the longings of our hearts, and you desire that we enjoy friendship with you.

*From your pierced side, you have poured out
the wellspring of life, for which we thirst.*

Your heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with you.

*We celebrate the abundant gifts you have given this nation, founded on the self-evident truths that our Creator
has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.*

We make reparation for the offenses against you and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation.

*May our hearts be united to yours, so that our families and communities enjoy peace and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired,
and the wounds of our land be healed.*

*May your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign,
pointing all people to your infinite love.*

*O Desire of Nations and Center of History,
we ask you to bless these United States of America.*

Who live and reign with God the Father

*in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

MEET OUR NEW PASTOR, FR. KENNETH L. CAVARA

On Wednesday, July 1, the majority of the Catholic Church of Philadelphia's pastoral shifts took place; this changing of the guard, so to speak, coincides with the start of the new fiscal year. And so, with it, our community warmly welcomes our eighth pastor, Rev. Kenneth L. Cavara, who seamlessly and officially transitioned to his new home.

Fr. Cavara has deep roots in our surrounding area. Having grown up in West Chester, he was an altar server at St. Agnes, where he also helped mow the grass in its cemetery. After graduating from St. Agnes' School, he attended Salesianum School in Delaware. Afterward, he went to West Chester University, where he studied political science. After college, he decided to travel abroad; he taught English in Taiwan and traveled around Southeast Asia, including Thailand.

His parents, Kenneth and Noreen Cavara, exemplified strong faith and service at St. Agnes, embodying the values they cherished. However, at sixteen, while playing in an international soccer tournament in the Netherlands, he received the news that he needed to return home. It was then that he learned of the sudden death of his father. As his mother remained steadfast, she raised seven children, the youngest of whom was only six years old at the time of her husband's passing. Fr. Cavara recalls her saying, "I knew the Lord would take care of us, as He always had."

After returning to the US, while working in medical sales in Mississippi, he became involved in his local parish, serving as a lector and catechist in the Parish Religious Education Program, and reading more about the faith.

His pastor posed the question, 'Have you ever thought of becoming a priest?' This moment marked a significant step in his spiritual journey toward the priesthood. As he settles in, takes the lead in our pastoral care, and immerses himself in our vibrant community, he looks forward to being in closer proximity to his family, including his sister, Teresa, and her family, who are already active members at SMM.

Having been ordained in 2021 and serving in several parishes, most recently as pastor at St. John the Baptist in Manayunk, Fr. Cavara understands the challenges of living in a world filled with distractions and devices. His role as a priest is a reminder to us of enduring faith, and as he shared with CatholicPhilly just prior to his ordination, 'To be a witness, a reminder of the Lord who sustains us and who we're going to behold face-to-face through his goodness and mercy and enjoy everlasting life; to be able to talk about that with people, sounds to me like a great life.'

We are truly blessed to have Fr. Carava with us, and we invite everyone to support his leadership and vision. As we work together to grow in faith and serve God, your ongoing care and engagement will continue to strengthen our community and shared journey.

NEW! A STATEMENT FROM ARCHBISHOP PÉREZ
EITC & OSTC NEWS • JUNE 23

Archbishop Nelson J. Pérez issued the following statement June 23 on the proposed elimination of Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) and Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit (OSTC) programs.

"The recent passage of House Bill 2632 by the Pennsylvania House of Representatives poses a serious threat to school children and families throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This legislation seeks to eliminate the Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) and the Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit (OSTC) programs. The result would be devastating for school children and their families.

If enacted into law, this bill would negatively impact tens of thousands of students across Pennsylvania who currently rely on these scholarship programs. EITC and OSTC scholarships are funded by companies and individuals who see value in providing families with educational choice. These programs are vibrant, successful, and reduce taxpayer burdens when it comes to educating our young people, particularly those who come from challenging financial circumstances and live in underserved communities.

Parents should have the ability to choose the educational environment that best suits the needs of their children. I am deeply grateful to those who support EITC and OSTC. These programs are vital and no one can afford to see them disappear.

I urge our elected officials to work for their preservation without reduction in funding levels."

Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia
