SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

'The Sermon On the Mount' by Carl Bloch (1877)

+JMJ+

Dear Faithful & Friends,

Praised be Jesus Christ! On Sunday, November 1, Holy Mother Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints, honoring all those who have attained the glory of Heaven: the canonized saints whose names are known to us, and the countless holy souls whose sanctity is known to Almighty God alone. This great feast reminds us that we are called to nothing less than eternal life with the Most Holy Trinity. The saints are not merely figures of the distant past, but our elder brothers and sisters in Christ, whose prayers assist us and whose example inspires us to persevere in faith, hope, and charity.

The Church, the Mystical Body of Christ, is united in three states: the Church Triumphant in Heaven, the Church Suffering in Purgatory, and the Church Militant here on earth. On this solemn feast, we rejoice in the victory of the saints and remember our own calling to holiness.

On Monday, November 2, the Church commemorates All Souls' Day, offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and prayers for the faithful departed who are undergoing purification in Purgatory before entering the perfect holiness of Heaven. Throughout the entire month of November, we are encouraged to pray for our beloved faithful departed. On Sunday, November 15, at 11:00 AM, we will have our annual Mass of Remembrance for all those who have passed in this last year from our parish.

Through prayer, the Holy Mass, and indulgences offered for their benefit, we can assist the Holy Souls as they await the Beatific Vision. Let us remember our departed relatives, friends, benefactors, and all those who have no one to pray for them. The Church grants a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, to the faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. This indulgence is available on each day from November 1 through November 8, inclusive.

A plenary indulgence remits all the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven. It may be offered to a particular deceased person or for the benefit of the Holy Souls according to one's intention.

To obtain the plenary indulgence, the faithful must:

1. Visit a cemetery devoutly and pray for the faithful departed, even silently.

2. Go to sacramental Confession. One Confession may suffice for several plenary indulgences.

3. Receive Holy Communion, ordinarily on the day the indulgence is sought.

4. Pray for the intentions of the Pope, such as one Our Father and one Hail Mary.

5. Be detached from all sin, even venial sin. This means sincerely rejecting every attachment to sin, with a firm desire to offend God no more.

The sacramental Confession may be made within several days before or after the indulgenced work; the Church's usual guidance allows approximately twenty days. Holy Communion and prayer for the Pope's intentions should be fulfilled for each indulgence sought and are most fittingly performed on the same day as the cemetery visit.

Only one plenary indulgence may be gained each day. If the necessary disposition or one or more of the conditions is lacking, the indulgence may be partial rather than plenary. A partial indulgence removes a portion or part of the temporal punishment due to our sins, while a plenary indulgence removes all of the temporal punishment.

A further indulgence on All Souls' Day:
On November 2, the faithful may also obtain a plenary indulgence for the Holy Souls by devoutly visiting a church or oratory and reciting the Our Father and the Creed, under the same usual conditions for a plenary indulgence.

May eternal rest be granted to the faithful departed and let perpetual light shine upon them. As we are reminded of our call to be saints and pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, let us pray for each other to persevere in the pursuit of holiness. Be assured of my prayers.

May our Lord bless you and our Lady keep you!

In Christ,
Father Cavara

On behalf of our St. Vincent de Paul Conference and those we serve experiencing poverty in Delaware County, we offer a heartfelt thank you to the SMM community for your spiritual and financial support during last weekend's Masses.
