

Saint Mary Magdalen Church

Building a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic Worship, Formation & Charity.

30 NOVEMBER 2025
FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Dear Friends in Christ,

We begin this Sunday a new liturgical year, the Season of Advent, and what I think of as the “Incarnation cycle” within the liturgical year (as compared to the “Paschal Mystery cycle” of Lent). What do I mean by this term?

The Season of Christmas, which begins with the great Solemnity of the Nativity on December 25th, celebrates several realities at once: the Birth of Jesus in Bethlehem to the Virgin Mary; the Maternity of Mary, who bore God in her womb (January 1st); the manifestation of Jesus as the long-desired King of all the nations (Epiphany, traditionally January 6th, the twelfth day of Christmas); and, finally, Jesus’ manifestation to Israel in His public ministry (the Baptism of the Lord). All of these celebrate—through different lenses—the mystery of the Incarnation, “the Word made flesh and dwelling among us” (John 1:14).

Are we attuned to the import of the words we say each Sunday in the Creed about how the Son, eternally begotten of the Father, “by the Holy Spirit, was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man”? If those words are true (and why would we be Catholics if we didn’t believe them?) then everything has changed. It means that God has entered into human history; the eternal has stepped into time. God has made Himself visible as a small child in the arms of his mother; He walked the dusty roads of Israel; He has talked with sinners, healed the sick, celebrated with a couple on their wedding day, and suffered unjustly at the hands of false friends. The Incarnation is not just a stuffy theological word with no effect on our lives; rather, it means that God has chosen to share in our lot.

Advent, then, is to this celebration as Lent is to the Paschal Mystery. During Lent, we learn to discipline ourselves in order to share in Christ’s passion, so that we might celebrate Easter with proper solemnity and joy. But with Advent, it’s a bit different: the discipline of Advent is one of learning how to wait for God’s gifts. While this might involve some measure of Lent-like fasting, prayer, and almsgiving (which are always in season!), in Advent

ELECTRONIC PARISH GIVING

Visit our website's 'Giving' page to make a one time gift or sign up for recurring electronic donations using the 'Parish Giving' secure link or scan the QR code.

the waiting is the point! That's what those Advent calendars we all grew up with are meant to teach: that God wants to give us a great gift, and that we cannot give up while we are waiting for it.

All of us—including this priest—often want what we want when we want it. In our longing to fulfill these seemingly endless desires, we often miss the one who alone fulfills all our desires: Christ himself. As the Prophet Isaiah, one of the lodestars of Advent, reminds us:

*"Seek the Lord while he may be found,
call upon him while he is near;
let the wicked forsake his way,
and the unrighteous man his thoughts;
let him return to the Lord, that he may have mercy on him, and to our God,
for he will abundantly pardon" (Is 55:5-6).*

Therefore, the virtue that Advent brings to mind more than any other is hope. Hope is not optimism in some brighter future that we humans are supposed to construct but never actually seem to bring about. Rather, hope is the virtue of the wayfarer, of one who is on pilgrimage and has not yet arrived at the destination. Like the sailors looking up at the stars, God gives us signs to help us stay on the right course. But we still have to live in the tension of God's here and not yet; of Christ who has come and also will come again; of seeing oneself as a recipient of so many good things, including our faith and our home in the Church, yet not yet having arrived safely on the shores of our true homeland. May Mary, Our Lady of Hope, intercede for us all this Advent, that we might at its conclusion come face-to-face anew with Christ her Son. 🌿

May the Lord grant you peace!

Deep in Our Lord's Vineyard

The Gospels tell us almost nothing about St. Joseph, yet his life is full of spiritual treasures. Yet, the author enables the reader to find them in his book, Joseph the Silent and how they can enrich your own relationship with God.

In this series of brief meditations he explores St. Joseph's work as a carpenter, his marriage, his character, the flight into Egypt, his return to Nazareth, Simeon's prophecy, and more. He gives you an enlightening portrait of this man who remains one of the Church's most extraordinary saints and intercessors.

This book is available on Kindle or limitedly through used or second-hand sellers.

For a deeper read, consider Pope John Paul II's apostolic exhortation Guardian of the Redeemer.

The anniversary edition includes the complete text of the apostolic exhortation, accompanied by a commentary by Joseph Atkinson, which makes Pope John Paul II's language more accessible.

This exhortation becomes a way to fully recognize and appreciate Saint Joseph's role in salvation history and delve deeply into your understanding of Jesus' foster-father.
