

Saint Mary Magdalen Parish

BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, FORMATION & CHARITY.

FEBRUARY 12, 2023

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Adoration Nourishes Our Faith, Family, and Friends

When we adore and love God with all our hearts in the Blessed Sacrament, Jesus blesses us with miracles of faith, love, hope, and mercy. As we adore Jesus, our Lord adores us as His precious children. We discover that if we were the only sinner, Jesus would become flesh and blood to redeem us from the devil and restore our divine destiny. First, praising Jesus for loving us releases God's Powerful Spirit (GPS) to grace and guide us back to Communion with the saints. While the Eagles promise us a Super Bowl victory, our Eucharistic Lord guarantees eternal life, peace, and joy with all the angels and saints. As we cheer, "Go Eagles," we should also go to Adoration to discover our Forever Friend who will nourish our faith, family, and friendships and enable us to triumph through Him and with Him eternally.

The Blessing of Eucharistic Adoration

by Joanne Hinkle

When I came to St Mary Magdalen some twenty years ago, Doris Dolan and Lee Gardella introduced me to Perpetual Adoration. Spending time with Jesus was the beginning of a life-changing experience for me. I would go and sit quietly in the Chapel and speak with Jesus about everything that was going on in my life, and I realized that He was indeed listening to me. Today, with my three grown children and seven grandchildren, there is always someone or something I need to pray for to overcome my worry. My daughter needed a good babysitter; my son struggled to open a business; my grandchildren had issues at school, and I was caring for my aging mother and trying to please everyone filled with constant stress. While experiencing personal health issues and a demanding job, I was unsure how I could continue to hold everyone and everything together.

I began to stop at the Chapel daily to be alone with Jesus and experience His love. He understood what I was going through and truly helped me carry my burdens. I was getting to know Jesus and loved spending time with Him. The Chapel became my quiet place to learn how much His love and mercy bless me with His peace and serenity. Our Lord's healing presence enables me to handle my health issues. I find that I can't do anything without Him. My greatest blessing is facing my weaknesses with His love and friendship. Even on the most difficult days, our Lord comforts, consoles, and makes me smile. Jesus hungers to nourish you with His Eucharistic Heart.

Prayfully consider: How willing am I to spend time to become His forever friend?

ALL ARE WELCOME! ✦ 2400 N. PROVIDENCE ROAD ✦ MEDIA, PENNSYLVANIA 19063

JOIN US! THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND AT ST. MARY MAGDALEN BEGINS ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 20

Archbishop Pérez said, "Christ's last Word to us was not to 'come' but to 'go.'" This call to be missionary disciples is essential because our call is to get everyone out of the pews and announce the Good News of Jesus Christ. We follow the kerygma to proclaim, as St. Peter did on Pentecost, after curing the Paralytic (Acts 2: 14-21).

The Gospel implores us to remember our neighbors because we are to be a light to those in darkness and those who are lost. Anyone who does not know the love of Jesus Christ is lost in the dark. Like salt preserves, purifies, and enriches, we are called to be the salt for others in the world.

We have all wanted to reach out and bring our children, relatives, friends, and even ourselves closer to Christ. As His disciples, we regularly pray about this but often struggle with what to do or say to change our relationships with God.

So, how do we follow Jesus's call to go forth and proclaim the Good News? Beginning on Monday, February 20, and continuing on Mondays and Thursdays at 7:30 PM, we will start a catechesis that has been going on around the world for sixty years!

Join us in the St. Francis Room for the fundamental teachings of the apostles and disciples after the Ascension. You will discover what is meant for us to be light, salt, and leaven. You will hear our 'kerygma' as we proclaim the Kingdom of God at Saint Mary Magdalen. Come and see.

Adults and youth, aged 12 and up, and we encourage everyone, even those who no longer find the Church relevant to attend. All are welcome.

NEW! STEWARDSHIP SOCK DRIVE FEBRUARY 15 TO 28

Please consider donating NEW pairs or packs of socks for men, women, and children to aid area homeless and underprivileged. In collaboration with The Joy of Sox® program, we will collect and distribute needed socks to shelters throughout Philadelphia. The Joy of Sox suggests dark-colored cotton crew socks with reinforced toe and heel, and there is a specific need for adult sizes, but we gladly accept all new sock donations. Collection boxes will be available in the Narthex and the gym lobby.

We thank you for your generous hearts.

NEW! TRIP TO NATIONAL CENTRE FOR PADRE PIO THURSDAY, APRIL 20

The Senior Social Club and Msgr. Chieffo invite you to join them on a day trip to the scenic and spiritual National Centre for Padre Pio in Barto, PA.

Padre Pio is many things to many people: a priest, a teacher, a mystic, a saint, and a friend. Enjoy the story of his life movie and walk through the shrine with the most extensive collection of authentic Padre Pio relics in the United States. The day includes Mass at noon with Msgr. Chieffo in the Lady of Grace Chapel, a historically accurate Franciscan site based on Padre Pio's church. We will leave SMM at 8:30 AM by motorcoach and return around 4:30 PM. The day includes an onsite buffet lunch, time for personal prayer, enjoy the centre grounds, and the gift shop. The cost is $96 per person.

To reserve your seat, please contact Bill Moore at 484.420.4575 or email patbillbr4@comcast.net.

We are Called to Be Missionary Disciples

VOLUNTEER FOR CLOW MINISTRY

We need catechist volunteers to teach the Gospel to children in grades 1 to 3 during the 9:30 AM Sunday Mass during the school year. CLOW (Children's Liturgy of the Word) invites children to the Chapel during the 9:30 Mass for the reading and a brief lesson related to it. A special CLOW Gospel book is used and children are invited to share their prayer intentions. Please consider adding your joy and voice to this rewarding ministry for our children.

For more, please contact Carol at CLOW@stmarymagdalen.net.

PERPETUAL ADORATION HOURS

We continue searching for meaningful ways to be closer to Jesus, perhaps you have been feeling overwhelmed or grateful. Jesus is here for you in each of your sorrows and joys. Consider spending one-on-one time with Him in any of these Holy Hour openings in Perpetual Adoration. It is a beautiful way to share, reflect, thank, adore, and praise our Eucharistic Lord. We are grateful for all our adorers because there would be no Perpetual Adoration without them. Maybe, grab a partner in prayer and share a slot. We have open hours: Monday from 1 to 2 PM, 2 to 3 PM, and 9 to 10 PM; Tuesday from 10 to 11 AM, 11 AM to Noon, 1 to 2 PM, and 10 to 11 PM; Thursday from 10 to 11 AM, 11 AM to Noon, 1 to 2 PM, and 5 to 6 PM.

Contact Shelly Zeller at 610.505.0559 for more information.

GREETERS NEEDED

Become a part of our Hospitality Ministry Team. Offer your bright smile and welcome others to our church before weekend Masses or special events as a greeter. It is a minimal commitment that makes a significant impact. Please help us extend a welcoming spirit to all who enter our community. For more information, contact Ginny

Do This in Remembrance of Me

The Mass—Part Three

When we come to Mass, we recall the graces of our Baptism, genuflect to acknowledge Jesus' actual presence, and find our seat. So, what comes next? A little time for prayer will help us to prepare for the graces of the Mass.

These are just some of the questions our parishioners ponder, and they are great questions! So, over the coming months, we will explore the most common things Catholics want to know about the Mass. In this multiple-part series, we will review the parts of the Mass each week as we prepare for Lent.

Silence before Mass

As grown adults, we may only recall some of our family's rules growing up. However, for many of us, one that stood out was the expectation to attend church as a family. Fr. Spannigal recalls, "If Sunday Mass were at 8 AM, we would line up in the pew by 7:50 AM in my family. It was not to get our preferred seat; instead, it was my parent's priority to be a model for us. The goal of those ten minutes before Mass was for us to settle in, pray and prepare. I often think about what a great gift it was to make it clear that attending Sunday Mass together was the top priority for our family."

How Do We Prepare?

The Roman Missal (GIRM, no. 45) says there should be a quiet opportunity in the church for the faithful to prepare prayerfully for the Holy Mass. Silence offers us the opportunity to reflect on the generosity of our loving Father and to prepare to thank Him in the worship of the Mass. We might also ponder our specific needs by talking to God about difficulties, stresses, or anxieties we are experiencing and offer them to the Lord, asking for His help and grace. Silence before Mass can be a challenge especially if we have yet to make it a habit. Prepare your soul for Communion with acts of contrition and atonement, and pray for the priest to guide the needs of the parish. Pray for the congregation and that all understand what we hear during the Mass. (Understanding the Mass, pg. 38). Use of a missal or hymnal to review the readings and prayers of the Mass ahead of time. Being familiar with these beforehand will enable you to be more attentive and unite your prayer more fruitfully with the Mass.

Intentions

One tradition we sometimes are unaware of is the opportunity to offer a personal intention for each Mass we participate in, asking that the graces we receive from the Mass be applied to someone who might need them or to a particular situation. As the priest prays the Eucharistic Prayer, he offers the Mass for a public intention (posted in the bulletin and announced). Those present can also offer a private intention by uniting with the prayers at the altar. For example, you might ask for your family to grow in love, the health of a friend, the soul of a deceased relative, reconciliation for a strained relationship, peace in the world, or greater recognition of the dignity of all life. In addition to assisting our brothers and sisters in Christ, praying about an intention for the Mass is also a great way to help us be more attentive to the prayers and readings and to receive more fully the fruits of the Mass. Make a plan to arrive at church a bit earlier, and take the challenge of spending a little time in prayer before Mass. In addition to the suggestions above, any of our classic prayers or even composing a prayer of your own is a great way to help prepare your heart for the celebration of the Mass. In our time, when everything can be so hectic, give yourself and your family the gift of a few extra minutes of quiet preparation.

Reflection

Before Mass, pray with the invitation the Lord gives us in these verses: "Be still and know that I am God!" (Ps. 46:10) and "Pour out your hearts to God our refuge!" (Ps. 62:8). Keep these verses in your mind and heart as you bring the fruits of prayer to your preparation before Mass.

Do you arrive at Mass with family members or friends? Discuss the importance of having time together for prayerful preparation and set a plan for the time you want to arrive before Mass.

TOGETHER, AS A PARISH FAMILY, WE:

Renew. Revive. Rejoice.

JOIN US! THAT MAN IS YOU THURSDAYS • 6:30 AM

That Man Is You (TMIY) meets on Thursday mornings. A Catholic scripture-based program for men which addresses the challenges men face in today's culture. As we prepare for Lent, consider joining other men of all ages for our 'Light of Men' series with a particular focus on preparing our hearts for His Rising this Easter. It's a great support network to help us stay accountable to our Lenten goals of prayer, fasting, and sacrifice. No advanced preparation is needed, and weekly attendance is not required—so you can join us anytime. Come on Thursdays to the St. Francis Room. The doors open at 6 AM, and we begin at 6:30 AM.

NEW! ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

This month, we are helping a family of six from Chester with rent assistance. The father, unable to work after a stroke in October, ultimately lost his job. Their rent went unpaid for several months, resulting in an eviction notice. We met, prayed, and discussed their needs. Through your generosity, we settled their back rent, and they are grateful beyond words. Do you want to join us in our ministry to the poor in spirit? Call Paul Feuerstein at 610-529-1672 for more information.
