THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

'Parable of the Talents' by Willem de Poorter (1634)

+JMJ+

Dear Faithful & Friends,

Praised be Jesus Christ! There are times in life when the responsibilities placed before us seem far greater than our abilities. The demands of family, friends, work, and daily obligations can leave us feeling overwhelmed, inadequate, and even afraid that we will not be able to fulfill all that is asked of us.

In this Sunday's Gospel, our Lord gives us the parable of the talents (Mt 25:14-30). A master entrusts his servants with different amounts of treasure, according to their abilities, and then departs. Upon his return, he asks each servant to give an account of what has been entrusted to him. The first two servants put their talents to work and are rewarded for their faithfulness. The third servant, however, acts out of fear. Rather than use what his master has given him, he buries his talent in the ground.

How often do we do the same? We look at the responsibilities before us and become so conscious of our limitations that we forget the generosity and power of the One who has entrusted them to us. Our Lord does not ask us to do His work without His grace. It is important to remember that Almighty God, in His Divine Providence, never abandons those who sincerely seek to do His will. He does not promise that our lives will be free from difficulties, nor does He promise that every situation will seem easy. However, He does promise His grace, His strength, and His presence. He supplies what we need to fulfill the duties He has placed before us.

We must not confuse feeling overwhelmed with being incapable. We may not see how everything will come together. We may not feel prepared for the task at hand. We may even wonder whether we have anything worthwhile to offer. Yet our Lord does not require us to possess every answer or every ability. He asks us to be faithful with what He has given us today.

Sometimes He allows us to recognize our weakness precisely so that we will depend more completely upon Him. We are not expected to accomplish everything through our own strength, but through cooperation with grace.

The servant who received five talents was not asked to account for ten. The servant who received two was not expected to produce five. Each was called to be faithful according to what had been entrusted to him. This is a consoling truth. Almighty God knows our circumstances, our limitations, our crosses, and our abilities far better than we know them ourselves. He does not compare us with our neighbor. He asks only that we faithfully cooperate with His grace. This is a timely reminder as we prepare for Thanksgiving in two weeks and the many family gatherings, activities, and responsibilities that will soon fill our days.

When the work seems too great, pray. When the burden seems too heavy, turn to Him. When fear tempts you to bury your talents, take courage and begin with the little that is in your hands. Perhaps the task before you today seems impossible. Perhaps you are carrying responsibilities that no one else sees. Remember that our Lord, who entrusted you with your talents, will also provide the grace necessary to use them well. Do not bury your talents beneath the weight of worry. Offer them to Christ, do your duty faithfully, and leave the results in His hands. In other words, the Catholic approach is, "Pray as though everything depended on God; work as though everything depended on you" (CCC 2834). One day, may we each hear those beautiful words of our Divine Master: "Well done, my good and faithful servant. [...] Come, share your master's joy" (Mt 25:21).

Be assured of my prayers.
May our Lord bless you and our Lady keep you!

In Christ,
Father Cavara

LOW-GLUTEN HOSTS

Catholics who require a low-gluten host are invited to approach the Celebrant. He will have the low-gluten hosts with him, in a separate vessel from the main ciborium, as he distributes the Eucharist, generally from the center aisle. Thank you for helping us ensure that everyone may receive the Most Holy Eucharist with reverence and care.

NEW! ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

This week, we met with a single mom who lives in Chester with her two children and one grandchild. Her water was shut off for non-payment, so she is getting buckets of water from neighbors for hygiene and buying bottled water for drinking. She owes over $3,500 to the water and sewer utility companies, which are demanding full payment for water restoration. While employed full-time at a local nursing home, she clearly cannot get caught up, especially with the holidays coming. If you can help her, please leave a donation in the metal box next to the food bin in the Narthex.

SENIORS' CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 9 • NOON

All are welcome to attend this year's annual Christmas Luncheon at The Springhaven Club in Wallingford on Wednesday, December 9, at noon for cheer, good food, and fun with friends. The cost per guest is $42 and includes entertainment by singer Calvin Pressley. RSVP no later than November 27. Entrée selection is crab cake or filet. To reserve seats, please contact Connie Evanko at 610-420-4869.

H.O.P.E MEALS MINISTRY

Helping Other People Every Day (H.O.P.E.) is a ministry dedicated to exactly that. A team of volunteers uses a sign-up system to prepare and deliver a meal once or twice a week to those in our parish community who are suffering a setback, are homebound, or are experiencing an illness. If you need a meal service or would like to volunteer, please email Kelly Hassey at kellyhassey@msn.com. The commitment is minimal and extremely rewarding, helping bring hope and care to our parish community.

NEW! ADVENT PRAY25
BEGINS MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30

This Advent, join Hallow as we journey through one of the greatest Christmas films of all time: It's a Wonderful Life. Over the 25 days leading up to Christmas, we'll walk with the film's main character, George Bailey, as he begins to open his eyes to the great beauty of his life and teaches us to do the same. Sister Miriam will lead us in prayer throughout the challenge along with other Hallow presenters. Begins Monday, November 30 on the Hallow app.
