

Saint Mary Magdalen Church

Building a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic Worship, Formation & Charity.

14 DECEMBER 2025
THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Dear Friends in Christ,

¿No estoy aqui que soy tu madre?

These words—which mean “Am I not here, who am your mother?” in English—were those reportedly spoken to Saint Juan Diego by the Blessed Virgin Mary when she appeared at Tepayac Hill in Mexico City in 1531. Today, almost 500 years later, Our Lady of Guadalupe is one of the most beloved Marian devotions of all, and her Shrine is routinely the most visited pilgrimage site in the world.

Her message was one of spiritual closeness, particularly to the poor and those who suffer.

In her image—famously displayed on the Tilma kept at the Shrine today—Mary appears in her features and dress looking like one of the indigenous women native to that part of the New World. She chose as her instrument not one of the Europeans who made up the leadership of the Church in those early days, but one of those natives, Juan Diego, a simple man who in the eyes of the world was utterly powerless. Indeed, the apparition of Guadalupe is continuing evidence of the true transformative power of the Gospel, sung by Mary herself in the Gospel, “he has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly.”

In a beautiful way, the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe has become in recent decades a symbol of the political and cultural efforts to put an end to the terrible scourge of abortion in our country. This is especially poignant as Our Lady is depicted encinta, that is, with child.

This is the image of the Advent Mary, joyfully expecting the Son of God, whose mother she was chosen to be.

Invoking her intercession for mothers struggling through difficult pregnancies is an excellent thing to do, that all may have the courage to choose life and receive material and spiritual support from those around them to do so.

At this time in our country, I think our Lady’s image can serve as a powerful reminder of the need for harmony among the peoples of this land. As the Patroness of the Americas, Our Lady reminds us that we are all brothers and sisters to one another, amid the various ethnographic histories which have brought us together on this continent. In response to recent challenges to immigrant populations in our country, the Bishops of the United States released a special message about immigration last month, reminding all Americans of the fundamental dignity we have from God, our creator, and reminding political leaders that this fundamental dignity is the foundation of true law.

I include the entire letter below. But one more point on this topic of fundamental dignity: our Christian brothers and sisters in Nigeria are suffering terrible persecution right now. Deacon Jude's own family is very familiar with this terrible situation. As brothers and sisters in Christ, we have a duty to pray earnestly for them, for their perseverance, and for the conversion of the hearts of the persecutors. We who so value our freedom of religious expression in our country should never take this for granted, nor ignore the plight of those who are in danger simply for going to worship God at Sunday Mass.

P.S. Don't forget to let me know via e-mail or by dropping in the basket at Sunday Mass the names of anyone you would like to nominate for our Parish Pastoral Council. Thank you!

May the Lord grant you peace!

Special Messages of the Bishops of the United States on Immigration

As pastors, we the bishops of the United States are bound to our people by ties of communion and compassion in Our Lord Jesus Christ. We are disturbed when we see among our people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. We are saddened by the state of contemporary debate and the vilification of immigrants. We are concerned about the conditions in detention centers and the lack of access to pastoral care. We lament that some immigrants in the United States have arbitrarily lost their legal status. We are troubled by threats against the sanctity of houses of worship and the special nature of hospitals and schools. We are grieved when we meet parents who fear being detained when taking their children to school and when we try to console family members who have already been separated from their loved ones.

Despite obstacles and prejudices, generations of immigrants have made enormous contributions to the well-being of our nation. We as Catholic bishops love our country and pray for its peace and prosperity. For this very reason, we feel compelled now in this environment to raise our voices in defense of God-given human dignity.

Catholic teaching exhorts nations to recognize the fundamental dignity of all persons, including immigrants. We bishops advocate for a meaningful reform of our nation's immigration laws and procedures. Human dignity and national security are not in conflict. Both are possible if people of good will work together.

We recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. Without such processes, immigrants face the risk of trafficking and other forms of exploitation. Safe and legal pathways serve as an antidote to such risks.

The Church's teaching rests on the foundational concern for the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). As pastors, we look to Sacred Scripture and the example of the Lord Himself, where we find the wisdom of God's compassion. The priority of the Lord, as the Prophets remind us, is for those who are most vulnerable: the widow, the orphan, the poor, and the stranger (Zechariah 7:10). In the Lord Jesus, we see the One who became poor for our sake (2 Corinthians 8:9), we see the Good Samaritan who lifts us from the dust (Luke 10:30–37), and we see the One who is found in the least of these (Matthew 25). The Church's concern for neighbor and our concern here for immigrants is a response to the Lord's command to love as He has loved us (John 13:34).

To our immigrant brothers and sisters, we stand with you in your suffering, since, when one member suffers, all suffer (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:26).

You are not alone!

We note with gratitude that so many of our clergy, consecrated religious, and lay faithful already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. We urge all people of good will to continue and expand such efforts.

We oppose the indiscriminate mass deportation of people. We pray for an end to dehumanizing rhetoric and violence, whether directed at immigrants or at law enforcement. We pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation, and we are grateful for past and present opportunities to dialogue with public and elected officials. In this dialogue, we will continue to advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

As disciples of the Lord, we remain men and women of hope, and hope does not disappoint! (cf. Romans 5:5). May the mantle of Our Lady of Guadalupe enfold us all in her maternal and loving care and draw us ever closer to the heart of Christ. ✠
