BUILDING A FAMILY OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST — THROUGH CATHOLIC WORSHIP, EDUCATION & CHARITY.

SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

THE TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Are You Choosing God's Will to Promote Healing and Holiness?

Our Blessed Mother asked Maximilian Kolbe, as a child, to choose the red crown of martyrdom or the white crown of daily self-sacrifice. The young Max responded that he would take both. Later, Saint Maximilian Kolbe would become a Franciscan priest who perpetually surrendered his human will to God's will. On fire with the love and mercy of Jesus, the Franciscan spread the Good News of Jesus throughout the world, and he attracted over a thousand men to his monastery in Poland. When the Nazi regime invaded Poland, they shipped Maximilian to the Auschwitz concentration camp. Even his enemies recognized the power of this priest, who professed Jesus as the inspiration of all his thoughts, words, and deeds. When a prisoner escaped, ten men were selected at random to die as punishment. A family man was chosen, but Maximilian offered to take his place. Do you believe that God's will guarantees us divine love, peace, and joy? How willing are you to sacrifice your life for family, friends, or even a stranger?

Jesus elevated a little child in the presence of His disciples by placing the child in a privileged position of honor. It is customary, even today, to seat the guest of honor at the right side of the host. Who is the greatest in God's kingdom? The one who is humble and lowly of heart. Instead of asserting their rights, they empty themselves willingly of pride and self-seeking glory by taking the humble position of a servant or child. Jesus, Himself, is our model. Jesus emptied himself and took the form of a servant to clothe us in His divine nature. God wants to fill us with His glory. He opposes the proud and gives grace to the humble. Saint James warns us that if we want to be filled with God's life and power, we need to empty ourselves of everything that stands in the way—pride, self-seeking glory, vanity, prejudice, anger, and sloth. As empty vessels, God can fill us with His glory, power, and love. Are you ready to humble yourself and serve as Jesus did?

We do not know what the future holds, but if we believe that God created us to share His love, mercy, and peace, we are destined to be saints, like Maximilian, who inspire others. Take a minute during the next nine days and meditate as you gaze upon a crucifix. Ask yourself, "Am I promoting healing and holiness?" Listen in your soul and allow Jesus to embrace you so that you can embrace all you love—together.

Pray: "Lord Jesus, by your cross, you have redeemed the world and revealed your glory and triumph over sin and death. May I never fail to see your glory and victory in the cross? Help me to conform my life to your will and to follow in your way of holiness."

PARISH SCAM ALERT

Please be alert to scams being committed in our area involving requests for funds from pastors. Fraudulent scammers are affecting some parishes within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Parishioners may receive a text message, email, or robotic call from a source alleging to be the pastor. These messages contain a request for parishioners to purchase gift cards for a fundraiser or ask for ‘emergency’ donations from our pastor or office staff. If you receive an email or a suspicious text message, do not click on any links inside the email or give away any personal or financial information. We would not ask you to submit gift card numbers on the back of the card through an email or by phone. Any SMM fundraising events are in our bulletin and any mail has our parish’s letterhead, logo and parish mailing address on the return envelope. (Our staff’s parish emails always end with @stmarymagdalen.net—not @gmail.com or another account). Do not respond to any suspicious solicitations, and feel free to contact our parish office when in doubt.

THE SUNDAY REFLECTION

Isaiah 50:5-9a,
Psalm 116:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9,
James 2:14-18, & Mark 8:27-35

When Saint Bernard was asked what the four cardinal virtues were, he replied, «Humility, humility, humility, and humility!» In today's Gospel narrative, the disciples of Jesus, while on their way to Capernaum, discussed who amongst them was the greatest. The disciples, at this point, were clueless about Jesus and His mission. Even as Jesus foretells, for the second time, that betrayal and death await Him in Jerusalem, they continue to dream of sharing His glory when He declares Himself as the Messiah in the Holy City. Let's imagine their conversation:

Peter: "Of course it is me! Didn't Jesus call me the 'Rock' on which His community will be built?"

John: "It must be me, He loves me the most!"

Judas Iscariot: "It is me. I am the one who is trusted with the money. The world is ruled by money, and I am in control."

Phillip: "Remember when He had that catering problem? He turned to me for advice, and five-thousand hungry people were fed."

I suspect that the other eight had similar reasons. Because of this argument, Jesus assembled the Twelve and said, «If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.» His message may seem like impractical advice for anyone wanting a «promotion.» However, it is a reminder to us that we can be exalted with Christ in heaven only after following in His footsteps and carrying our crosses with humility.

The disciples eventually came to understand our Lord's teachings and embraced the 'Good News' of His message. During their years of ministry, they used the precise words that Jesus spoke to them to teach, preach, and heal others. The Word spread throughout the world, and it is still spreading today. In my eyes, other than Judas, they were all great. Now it is our turn.

Question of the Day: Do you believe that being humble is a sign of strength and not weakness?

Prayer: "I am the Good Shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me."

PRAY THE NOVENA TO SAINT JOSEPH

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia's Novena to Saint Joseph is available on our website under the 'Mass Online' page. We hope you pray this Novena in the year of St. Joseph to unite everyone in our archdiocese on the 19th of the month through November.

TO YOU, O BLESSED JOSEPH PRAYER

In celebration of a Year of St. Joseph. We pray:

*To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our afflictions, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.
Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.
O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family,
defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ;
O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence;
O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too,
each one of us by your constant protection,
so that, supported by your example and your aid,
we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.*

A PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

St. John Vianney (1786-1859)

Patron Saint of Priests

God, please give to Your Church many more innumerable priests after Your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd. May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of Your grace in the sacraments. May their loving devotion to Your Son, Jesus in the Eucharist, and Mary, His Mother, be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry. Amen.
