FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

With God's Love, All Things Are Made New

We all like new things. The word 'new' often implies something that has just come into our possession. We love the "new car" smell, the appearance and feel of new clothes, or the excitement we get from our newest technological gadget.

All of the Fifth Week of Easter readings speak of newness. In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we rejoice when we hear of St. Paul's journey back to the new churches he established and how the Gentiles are welcomed in accordance with the message of Christ. In our reading from Revelation, we see how the new and eternal Jerusalem will be realized in all its glory at the end of time. Most of us will not be called to establish new churches, and indeed the end times should be left to the Lamb of God himself, who says: "Behold, I make all things new." So, how can we hope to follow the new commandment to "Love one another, as I have loved you," proclaimed in today's Gospel?

The Commandment of Love is given to us as our Lord's disciples. The Old Testament law commanded human love for ourselves and our neighbors. Through his acts of charity and generosity, Christ mandates divine love for one another. The divine love is selfless and expects nothing in return. This supernatural love comes not from us but from the Holy Spirit. By merit of our baptism, we join in the divine nature of our Lord and are conformed and wired for goodness—for divine love. As humans, though, we need mentors and role models of this new commandment which speaks not to possession but the free will of giving of ourselves.

In the movie The Passion of the Christ, there is an intimate moment between our Lord carrying His cross and the Blessed Mother. Our Lord, who has fallen to the ground, looks up at His Mother and utters the words: "See, I make all things new!" He did indeed, and His Mother made the new possible with her Fiat, her 'yes' to the plan of salvation set out by the Father. Mary could not stop or prevent His suffering, so she courageously continued her 'yes' to love by following and comforting our Lord. "Nothing is so strong as gentleness, and nothing is so gentle as real strength." Undoubtedly, St. Francis de Sales had the Blessed Mother in mind when writing those words. When we find our "Yes" to God's plan too tough or with more suffering than we can bear, let us recognize that our Blessed Mother is always there and ready to comfort and guide us. During this month of Mary, let her answer be our answer to this new covenant: 'Yes, Lord, do with me as you will.' Only then will we see with the eyes of our Lord in our neighbors, and we can become their comfort and strength.

Servant of God, Fr. Bill Atkinson exemplified this law of love by his entire self-gift to everyone he encountered. As the first quadriplegic ever ordained to the priesthood, one might wonder how he gave to others? Through his daily example of courage and faith in God's grace, Fr. Bill served in the selfless manner of love. As Fr. Bill stated: "In this modern age where the dignity of human life is measured by productivity alone and where suffering should be eliminated at all cost, we must, more than ever, preach Christ crucified."

Fr. Bill followed our Blessed Mother's example of saying yes to the will of God. He was an example of strength for those who knew him. Through his strength, one witnessed his gentleness as well. He often got a person's pulse by asking a simple question: "How are you doing?" It was an effective yet simple expression of love that allowed him to connect with many. He asked not as a supplemental greeting but as an honest attempt to communicate on a personal level. In our present climate, when all the world desires connection, and the primary outreach for this kind of craving is through texts and emails, how refreshing would you find it if only someone asked you face to face: How are you doing? Love is personal.

Our Lady's and Fr. Bill's stories are quite different but share the same path. Both followed the will of the Father and showed us the way to the selfless law of Love of the Son. Joy is the result of regularly practicing this kind of love, and we should think of it as a lifelong journey. As St. Augustine said: "Love is itself the fulfillment of all our works. There is the goal; that is why we run: we run toward it, and once we reach it, we shall find rest."

If there are programs you believe will benefit our community, please bring them to the attention of Msgr. Chieffo, Fr. Jonathan, or Deacon Joseph Boyle. The majority of our events and programs are offered at little, no charge, or as a free-will offering; however, if you are interested in a program or event and are discouraged from attending due to the expense, don't hesitate to get in touch with Msgr. Chieffo.

NEW! THE 15 PROMISES OF MARY'S ROSARY

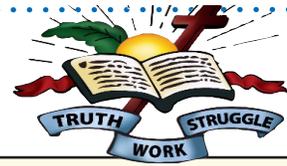

Throughout the Rosary's history, Our Lady has appeared to saints and others to encourage devotion to her Son primarily through her intercession of the Rosary. Through the faithful recitation of the Rosary, we may receive a cascade of grace. Mary has also made fifteen promises to those who pray the Rosary. They are:

1. Those who serve Mary by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive 'signal' graces or a simple sign that answers a question made in prayer or points towards God's will. For example, seeing a rose after finishing the Rosary could be considered a signal grace.
 2. Our Lady promises her special protection and extraordinary graces to all those who recite the Rosary.
 3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell. It will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
 4. The recitation of the Rosary will cause virtue and good works to flourish, and obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God.
 5. The soul shall not perish. Anyone who faithfully prays the Rosary and asks for Mary's intercession will not go to hell.
 6. Whoever recites the Rosary devoutly will never be overwhelmed by misfortune. God will not chastise them in His justice, and they will grow in grace and become worthy of eternal life. Furthermore, our Blessed Mother promises that anyone who regularly prays the Rosary and earnestly tries to live according to God's will be spiritually prepared when their death comes.
 7. They shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
 8. During their life and at their death, they will have the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death, they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
 9. Our Mother Mary shall deliver from purgatory those souls who are devoted to the Rosary.
 10. Those faithful to the Rosary shall merit glory in heaven.
 11. Those who ask Mary's aid through the recitation of the Rosary will obtain all that they seek.
 12. Mother Mary will aid all those in their needs.
 13. Mary will obtain from her Divine Son the intercessors of the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
 14. All who regularly recite the Rosary are Mary's sons and daughters and the brothers and sisters of my only Son, Jesus Christ.
 15. The devotion to the Rosary is a great sign of predestination. That is a good indication that the devotee is on the path to heaven.
- Join with our community to recite the Rosary—See Page 2 for details.
