Building a family of faith in Jesus Christ through Catholic Worship, Formation & Charity.

FEBRUARY 4, 2024

THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Saints Bless Us with Hope to Become Models of Mercy

The Talluto Family

Jesus came to give us hope; to heal us of our sins and free us from the power of death. By sacrificing his life and rising to eternal life, Jesus reveals to us how we can offer our lives and transform our culture of death into a living and loving communion of saints.

Saints are sinners who strive with trust in Christ's mercy and can grow in holiness and rejoice in sharing their experiences with others. Saints are humble but confident, believe the Scriptures, and receive the Sacraments. They live lives of virtue and serenity.

They rejoice in witnessing that we, too, can overcome despair by praying for the conversion of our loved ones and those who persecute us.

In today's gospel, Jesus heals Peter's mother-in-law and spends all day healing and delivering people from evil spirits. The devil is the source of evil and constantly tempts us to despair. Jesus offers us hope in God's Powerful Spirit, our spiritual GPS, who blesses us with wisdom, confidence, and courage to avoid sin and grow as Missionary Disciples of Jesus. Take time to learn about your patron saint and see how you can imitate their life of virtue.

"To err is human. To forgive is divine." All love relationships progress through five stages—Romance, Disillusionment, Misery, Makeup, and True Joy. As children, we look to our parents to show us how to respond like Jesus with reverence and respect.

In adolescence, we tend to rebel from family to experience and test how peers and authority live and love. As adults, we face the reality and responsibility to practice our Catholic faith through worship, formation, and charity. As elders, we can pass on the gift of peace. "Lord, grant us the serenity to accept the things we cannot change, the courage to change the things we can, and the wisdom to know the difference." Throughout all these stages, as his Missionary Disciples, we must work to convert others by practicing acts of kindness through divine mercy and charity.

Most penitents come to Reconciliation with low spirits but leave with joyful spirits. I challenge all of us, especially parents, to receive and witness the miracles in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The Sacrament is not just confessing your sins; it has four essential components. First, God is always loving and forgiving. Second, By confessing our sins, we profess our trust that Jesus paid the price for us on the Cross. Third, God has given his divine authority to the priest to pardon and absolve all sins. Finally, we resolve not to sin again and forgive those who sin against us.

Do you believe God and the saints can help you become a Missionary Disciple of Mercy?

NEW! THANKSGIVING PRAYER SERVICE HONORING OF FR. BILL ATKINSON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Join us at 6:30 PM on Thursday, February 22, for a Prayer Service of Thanksgiving in the church to remember the anniversary of Father Bill Atkinson's accident and to thank the Servant of God for his intercessions. Afterward, join us in St. Francis Hall for refreshments, a prayer testimonial of parishioner and traumatic accident survivor Cole Keith, and a brief presentation about a legacy "Sit, Rest, Pray, Heal" Sculpture Memorial Project in recognition of Fr. Bill Atkinson, OSA.

As we honor Fr. Bill Atkinson's legacy and celebrate his journey toward sainthood, his friends and family are diligently working to construct three sculptures to memorialize his example of virtue and dignity.

The legacy project "Sit, Rest, Pray, Heal" consists of a life-sized permanent bronze sculpture of the Augustinian priest, complete with a bench where visitors can reflect and pray, created by artist Timothy Schmalz. The first is in the Healing Garden of St. Augustine Parish in Old City Philadelphia, the first formation of Augustinians in America, and the founding location of Villanova University.

The second sculpture is at Bonner-Penergast Catholic High School, where Fr. Bill served for nearly thirty years. Additionally, they plan to place a third sculpture in Rome, Italy, at the International Headquarters of the Augustinians.

To learn more or to donate, visit frbillatkinson.org or augustinian.org/the-cause/.

About Fr. Bill Atkinson, OSA

On February 22, 1965, at age 19, Bill experienced a traumatic spinal injury in a tobogganing accident during his novitiate as a seminarian and could not move his body; however, he continued his studies to become a priest without any guarantee of being able to be ordained. Fr. Bill needed the pope to override Canon Law to be ordained, demonstrating his life, development, health, and abilities were suitable for holy orders.

A telegram with three words: "Atkinson

Dispensation Granted," came from the pope on August 8, 1973. Nine years after his accident, on February 2, 1974, he was ordained at his hometown parish of St. Alice's in Upper Darby. The Most Reverend Charles Chaput, the former Archbishop, officiated at the formal rite, which began this beloved Augustinian priest's beatification and canonization process. The formal rite earned Fr. Bill the title "Servant of God" and was the first step toward making him the Catholic Church's first quadriplegic priest into a saint.

Prayer to Fr. Bill Atkinson

Blessed are you, Father of Life, source of goodness and peace, in whom all creation has its origin and by whom every person is loved.

In Father Bill Atkinson your mercy and compassion were made manifest as he brought solace to the suffering and hope to the needy. By carrying the cross of life faithfully he proclaimed confidence in your love and conformity to your will, and so drew others to you and to the generous gift of your grace. Hear our prayers which we offer through his intercession so that as your work continues to unfold among us it may bring honor to you, comfort to your people, and, according to your will, glory to your servant. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

NEW! HOLY FAMILY HOME RESIDENTS A SPECIAL NEED FOR ITS RESIDENTS

The Little Sisters of the Poor contacted us because their residents are in need of liquid body wash.

Could you help them by donating body wash?

If so, please place soap into the marked container in the Narthex behind the Statue of St. Mary Magdalen. We are so grateful to you for helping the Sisters with this urgent request!

JOIN US! THE ROSARY SORROWFUL MYSTERIES SERIES FEBRUARY 28 TO MARCH 27

This Lent, embark on a spiritual journey that will deepen your love for Jesus through the Mysteries of the Rosary. Discover deeply reflective insights into the life of Christ and theological truths through captivating stories and see the places he journeyed in the Holy Land. Join us for five one-hour consecutive Wednesday evenings to discover theological truths about the powerful gift of the Rosary as we explore the Sorrowful Mysteries. This fantastic series was created by Paradisus Dei and sponsored by our TMIY program on these dates: Wednesdays on February 28, March 6, March 13, March 20, and March 27, in St. Francis Hall from 7 to 8 PM. We will begin with a prayer, a 30-minute video, and a reflective discussion.

THE SAMARITAN'S CHOICE HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12 • 7 PM

In 2015, Pope Francis implemented an initiative for a Day of Prayer and Reflection against Human Trafficking to raise awareness about the mortal sin and global scourge of human trafficking. In the Archdiocese, Archbishop Pérez, Office for Life and Family and Sovereign Military Order of Malta, launched an Anti-Human Trafficking Awareness Program entitled: "The Samaritans Choice: An Act of Love." St. Mary Magdalen will present this program on Monday, February 12, from 7 to 8:30 PM in St. Francis Hall. It teaches individuals how to identify the signs, report it, and how to support survivors. The Archbishop encourages us to participate in this important awareness program. "Every human being is made in the image of God and loved infinitely by his or her Creator. Please join me in praying for those who have been victimized by this assault on the dignity of human life."

NEW! A NOTE OF APPRECIATION

Hi Monsignor!

I just wanted to share with you how truly amazing the St. Mary Magdalen School community is. My childhood friend is the school nurse at Marcus Hook Elementary School, and she shared with me that the children there desperately need warm clothes to wear to school. Within hours of me posting this on the SMM Facebook page yesterday, so many families cleaned out their closets and got the items to me. My car is packed with bags to run to Marcus Hook Elementary today. I will drop off bags every few days as the donations come in to get these children the necessary items quickly. I just wanted to share with you, as I know we are both from that area, and I'm so grateful to our community for pulling together to help in their time of need.
